

Right To Information Act

The Right to Information Act, 2005 is a landmark legislation Act that empowers citizens to access information from public authorities, promoting transparency and accountability in government operations. And in this act every citizen has the right to request information from public authorities, which are required to reply within 30 days.

Right to Information Act, 2005

An Act to provide for setting out the practical regime of right to information for citizens to secure access to information under the control of public authorities, in order to promote transparency and accountability in the working of every public authority, the constitution of a Central Information Commission and State Information Commissions and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

Our institution is also included under this act. The institution has constituted a RTI Cell with the following members:

State Public Information Officer:

Dr. Rudrashis Datta, Assistant Professor

E-mail: rudrashisdatta@gmail.com

Mobile: 9830006011

Appellate Authority:

Ms. Aparna Roy, Teacher-in-Charge & Assistant Professor

E-mail: aparnaroypolsc@gmail.com

Mobile: 9836582969

